“ I offer my heartfelt sympathy to every family member that is grieving the loss of such a precious life. Suzanne was my roommate in college at CMU, so I only met Paula once or twice a long time ago. I know there has been a lot of love in this family. The greater the love, the deeper the wound. I recall what Corrie Ten Boom said, after surviving a death camp in the Holocaust, No matter how deep and dark the pit, God is deeper still. I pray that you, husband, daughters, sisters, mom, dad and all, will know the loving, compassionate presence of Abba Father close beside you - that you will know that He's got you, and He has her safely Home, and that you will make it through this, together and with His help. May every encouragement of the promises of God lift you up and strengthen you one step, one day at a time. May your perspective become His, your torn heart be mended well, your memories be sweet and many, and the Living Hope we have in Jesus Christ be as Real as feeling each others hands in your hands, as real as your tears, as real as bear hugs. i will be keeping you in my prayers as you travel through this journey. God has not left or forsaken Paula, and He will never leave or forsake you. May you all be able and determined to Trust the Lord with All your heart, lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways Acknowledge Who He Is, and He will direct your paths.
Warmly, Janet Hanson
