“ Our hearts break for you. We are remembering you in our prayers and lifting you before our Father. We pray that you will be strengthened by memories of Kevin and the knowledge that he is experiencing God in a way we all long to. It doesn't make the pain stop or go away, but knowing that we can grieve with hope, knowing that a reunion will happen, can give us a little bit of hope to get through the next minute. We are praying!

“ Oh my goodness, Robin and Norris. I am so sorry to hear about your loss. Our kids were all such a part of our ICU family when we all worked together. I did not have the privilege of knowing Kevin but I am sure he was a wonderful young man with you two as his parents. Be proud of the man you raised and cherish the time you had with him. You will be in my thoughts and prayers! Brenda Monroe

“ My condolences to the Klump Family. It's sad to read of the loss of a young person. Please be assured of God's promise that one day we will see our loved ones again happy and healthy, John 5:28 & 29 says, "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I pray this promise along with loving memories of Kevin fill your heart with comfort and peace.
