

Kimberly K. DiGangi

December 25, 1957 - October 17, 2012

ANN ARBOR – Kimberly Kay DiGangi, 54, of Manitou Beach, passed away Wednesday, October 17, 2012, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. She was born December 25, 1957, in Addison, the youngest child of LaVern and Mary (Lewis) Olmstead.

On December 9, 1977, Kim married John ‘Jay’ DiGangi. Jay, her husband of over 34 years, survives.

Kim worked for ProQuest in Ann Arbor for several years and, more recently, worked at the YMCA in Adrian as a preschool teacher. She was an excellent quilter and cook. She also collected Goofy memorabilia. Kim was a member of Church of The Good Shepherd.

Most precious to Kim was her family. In addition to her husband, she is survived by her God parents, Jim and Edna Keller of Adrian; her children: Michael (Christine) DiGangi of Trinity, FL; Tex ‘Renee’ (Jeffery) Hiltabidel of Jonesville; Jayson DiGangi of Adrian; and Audra DiGangi of Manitou Beach; and 5 grandchildren.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by a sister and 3 brothers.

A memorial celebration of Kim’s life will be held at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, October 23, 2012, at Wagley Funeral Home with Rev. Michael Goble officiating.

Visitation will take place at the funeral home on Monday from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. You may also send condolences to the family at www.WagleyFuneralHome.com.

“ Audra,

I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your Mother. Words cannot justify, explain or make right the loss you have incurred, but I can say this: your Mother will look down on you for the rest of your life smiling, knowing that she did all she could to raise a daughter as wonderful as you. Like her and everyone else in your life, I am so proud to see the person you have become since first meeting you eleven years ago. Know that while she may no longer be here in person, your Mother will always be with you, no matter where life may lead you.

You continue to be in my prayers, and if there is anything I can do for you, do not hesitate to ask.

With love and sympathy,

Devin Stevens

“ My deepest condolences to Kim's family. I worked with Kim for many years. We shared a lot of laughter and tears through the years together. I know how much she loved each and everyone of you. She was so proud of her family and not afraid to share those memories she had of all of you.

Kim touched so many lives in her life span. Always a good friend...We shared our lives together not only at work, but after work. Canoe trips were most memorable. Again, Kim touched my life for the better. May God Bless and keep her and all of you in his heart, as she kept all of you in hers.

Sincerely,

In loving memory of a beautiful person, my friend, daughter, wife and mother.
