“ So sorry to hear of your mother's passing. Growing up, we looked forward every week to seeing her, and you kids, in the pew right by us at the Shrine. She always had a story, and brought a smile to our faces. She has been such a good friend through the years and shared the big moments in our lives with us.

Tom and I are currently spending the winter in Fla., but know she will be in our prayers and you will all be in our thoughts. There is never a good time to lose a parent, especially a mother!
