“ You will be missed by all of us. Mark and I just met you a year ago but you were like a grandma to me and I wouldn't forget the time we spent at the auctions and at the Market Place in the Mall. I remember the night you kept asking Emma and I were your purse and you wouldn't believe us and kept asking then u laughed at me. Love ya and now I know you are not suffering anymore.

“ Gram

You came into my life 22 years ago and you never did anything but make me feel welcome, feed me, teach me, and love me. I'm so sad that you are gone but I know you are with our Lord. I'll never forget the time you went to Fazoli's with Floyd and I and you loved it,!or your puppy chow, looking around your yard with you at all your flowers.. and the time Floyd walked into the back porch and all your undies were hanging to dry, you were so embarrassed. Good times! I still have the things you made for me, I'll cherish them forever. You are gone from this world, but never from my heart. Floyd, Randy; Cheryl, Connie and Tammy I am so very sorry for the loss of a wonderful woman.

“ Gram was a huge role model in our lives. She was there to hold us during the bad times and celebrate the good times with us. She was always putting other first. She was a kind gentle woman and we can never thank her enough for her sacrifices she made for her family. Thank you Gram for your many years of caring for us . You will be in my heart forever. I love you so much and you will truly be missed
