“ Dear Grandma

Words cannot describe how we miss you, and how our family adores you. Thank you for going to all my events from baseball games to football games, weddings, baptisms birthday parties and later to my family events. I will always cherish spending the night with you and grandpa hunting in your woods and riding on your tractors and old farm trucks.

I also enjoyed showing you the latest big game hunted from your woods. You and grandpa have showed me how to keep a strong marriage together. We are so thrilled you were able to hold our new baby Grant this past week in your arms. Our family won't be the same with out you and we will miss seeing your always smiling, sweet face at our family events and while visiting you at Kingston. My you find eternal peace and happiness
