November 5, 1924 - July 15, 2013

Blissfield—Louise D. Shields, age 88, of Blissfield, passed away Monday, July 15, 2013 at Blissfield Place, with her family present, under the loving care of the Blissfield Place staff, who were like family and Hospice of Lenawee.

She was born on November 5, 1924 in Grandville County, NC to Louie (Davis) and Charles R. Davis. Louise married William (Bill) Henry Shields, Jr. on October 19, 1946 in Newport News, VA.

Louise lived life to the fullest, going with her husband, Sergeant Major Shields to all his military assignments while raising her family. She enjoyed flower and plant gardening, loved music and dancing, was an avid reader, a NC Tar Heel, volunteered for the Red Cross and was a member of the First Christian Church. She actually worked for NASA, before it was known for the space program. Louise lived for her family, she will be greatly missed but made wonderful memories for her children and their offspring.

Survivors include her children, Deborah (John) Walus of Mt. Clemens, MI, Charles (Dianne) Shields of Temperance, MI and Steven (Kendra) Shields of Blissfield; a sister Frances Brummert of Youngsville, NC; nine grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Welcoming her to heaven with open arms, is the love of her life, her husband, Bill (a.k.a. Opossum).

“ Louise and Bill were mother and father - in-law to our daughter Kendra and loving grandparents to Kendra and Steven's three girls. We have shared many visits, birthdays and holidays together. Bill's humor gave us many laughs and full filled moments. Louise entertained us with many of their military stories. We enjoyed our time with them and will miss them both. Rest now in God's loving arms.
