“ I called your mom, Our Lucy which she was a precious jewel for sure. My husband, Joe played the piano on Mondays when we were not out of town or in Florida. She always would say she missed us when we could not come. I played the tambourine and would dance with her in her wheelchair and she would give me a big smile. You can be proud to have her for your mom and grandma. We would tell each other I love you and hug each other. Love and hugs, Joe and Diane 'Red' Jacobs in Adrian, Michigan.
