“ I think of your Mom often - she has always reminded me of my own mother who now has Alzheimer's and was also married 39 yrs. Margie Lee instead of Marjorie. Your mother was a lovely lady. My sympathy.##imported-begin##Doris DeNudt##imported-end##

“ *Dale, Pat and families,
My deepest condolences to all of you. Will be out of town so can not make the funeral, but know that I will be thinking of you tomorrow and will keep you in my prayers. It is difficult to lose the ones we love. Even though Mitzi has been gone almost 10 months, I still find myself in tears on a regular basis. Life is but a vapor in the wind (as the song says). I remember so well the times your mom and dad would come to my mom and dad's house to play cards and drink beer - that's been a few years ago. But now the whole gang is together again. What a party! Take care and God Bless.
