“ Mark and I shared many fun times together while we were growing up. We were very close and had a special bond. As teens in the 60's and 70's one of our favorite things to do was to "hang out" in the upstairs attic space where we would play Beatles, George Carlin and Cheech and Chong records. We laughed ourselves silly! He loved to joke around, laugh, rock and roll and stir things up! He was proud and tenacious. What else would you expect from an Irishman?!

As adults we kept in touch over the years and shared many letters, photos, emails, phone conversations and a few treasured visits. In more recent years we enjoyed connecting on Facebook too. My memories are countless and I miss you so very much. At the same time my heart rejoices, for your spirit is free. I know that you are blissful and at peace. I LOVE you Cuz!
