“ My deepest sympathy to all the family, I knew Mark for a very long time, from school, and the bowling alley where I worked for many years. I use to laugh, cause when I waited on them there was a boob, shoe, and a boogie. For the longest time I didn't know their real names. Mark bowled many years. He was a super guy. He'll be missed greatly. My thoughts to family and close friends through this very sad time.

“ My condolences to Mark's family. As a Tecumseh boy, I have fond memories of playing Legion ball with "Boogie", and later bowling at Rich Lanes. His friendship meant a lot to me.
