

Mary Davenport

July 11, 1950 - June 6, 2009

ADRIAN – Mary R. Davenport, age 58 of Adrian, passed away Saturday, June 6, 2009 at Bixby Medical Center.

Mary was born in Madison, Wisconsin on July 11, 1950. She loved working at flea markets, making jewelry and sewing doll clothes. Mary is survived by her long-time companion, Earl Baker and her dear friend, Cindy Jaqua.

At Mary's request, cremation has taken place and all services will be private. You may send condolences at www.wagleyfuneralhome.com. Arrangements have been entrusted to Wagley Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Davenport

---

January 28, 2023 at 12:24 PM

“ Mary, you are so missed by myself and legions of others who always looked forward to your insights, your wisdom, your humor, your ability to be a great sport, and above all else the love you showed for your nearest and dearest, not the least of which was your wonderful Tucker. To the Davenport family, please know that Mary was a fine woman and I offer deepest sympathies upon her passing.##imported-begin##Andrew Martin##imported-end##

---

June 11, 2009 at 07:27 PM

“ i am deeply sorry to hear of Mary's passing. she was a special friend and a joy to have known. i will miss her tremendously ! we were acquainted through the message boards and i enjoyed her posts a great deal. i am so thankful to have had the opportunity to have called her friend.

granmatoy##imported-begin##Teresa##imported-end##

---

June 11, 2009 at 07:17 PM

“ Mary, Oh my gosh. You made me laugh. We never got to meet in person, but you shared your life and your jewelry with us. To me you were tuckersmom and Holly Go Lightly. Holly, go lightly now that you are in heaven. It was my pleasure to spend these last few years with you. I will always remember and miss you.

*Joy Seibel, Administrator from Ohio
Blue Rock Hideout and Chain Reaction message boards###imported-begin##Joy Seibel###imported-end##*

---

June 10, 2009 at 09:42 PM