“ Mary Lou Rinehart

“ I enjoyed every moment spent with Mary Lou. She was such a sweet, giving and loving person. She always remembered your birthday and made sure you got a card from her every year. She called me every day to read me the obituaries because she knew I didn't take the paper. Usually she would end up reading me the whole thing practically. I loved her and will miss her terribly. My condolences to all the family.

“ I loved my aunt Mary Lou. My sister and I would always fight about her because she was not really my aunt but she was my sisters aunt because she was married to my uncle Joe Fuller and later divorced before I was born. But my aunt Mary Lou would always tell me that she was my aunt too. My mom Mildred Remmele and her shared a birthday and they would always call each other on this day to wish each other a happy birthday . My aunt Mary Lou would say a phone call was better than any card and I agree. She called me on every Birthday and every Christmas. Even though I did not see her on a regular basis I will miss her. Your niece always Kathy Colburn.
