“ Dear Dr. Bob, I was so saddened to read about Mary Ann's passing. It has been over 20 years since she care for my daughter Becky at her office in Sylvania. We have fond memories of Mary Ann. She was a wonderful woman. We remember that she had a seashell collection and we also remember your licence plate's initials. I always got a chuckle from that.

God Bless you,ackie Oswald

“ Dear Bob and Adam,
I was a patient of Mary-Ann's when she had her private practice in Toledo. I will always be grateful for the help she gave me when I was younger. She made me whom I am today. My thoughts and prayers are with you both. Mary Ann will always have a special place in my heart. I will never forget her and how she helped me.##imported-begin##Ann A Aufdenkampe-Christman##imported-end##

“ *Dear Family of Mary Ann,
It was an honor to know and work with Mary Ann. A number of years ago she was assigned to Lenawee Christian School as the speech therapist and I, the elementary secretary, had the privilege of meeting and working with her. She was a very caring and encouraging person. She had a wonderful report with the children and adults that she worked with. My sincere condolences to you. May our Lord comfort and strengthen you.
Sincerely,
