“ What I will never forget about Aunt Nancy is when my mom and her would talk for hours on the phone and as soon as my dad, or Uncle Bob pulled in the driveway they were like....I gotta go. She will be missed. And she was the only one that called me Carol Anne... xoxo

“ I share a different view of Nancy than most. I am 2 years younger, and I adored her mother and father, Aunt Betty and Uncle Sam. Nancy was a trend setter in her teenage years, and I recall how beautiful she was then, and she remained beautiful throughout her life. I stopped in Adrian a couple years or so and made it a point to see Nancy. I saw the same Nancy she always had been. They only made one Nancy and I was fortunate to have known her. God Bless You Nancy!

“ For as long as I knew her and her family I called her mom. I saw her and dad doing everything they could to help others. One day after my late husband and I filled our utilitie trailer with produce, we stop by there house. I went in and told them I was taking them shopping. They grabbed bags and took them out side. Charles told them to grab anything they wanted. Both of them had great big smiles and started getting what they wanted. Next thing we knew the neighbors came out of their houses. Dad told them to come shopping and they did. It was the most amazing feeling because we were helping others like they did. Love you both

“ One memory I have of grandma, is when I was spending the night with her and grandpa. We were watching a movie on the tv and she made grandpa and I popcorn with shrimp. I sat on his lap and she sat at the kitchen table. I'll love and miss them both ☹️
