“ I'm going to miss Norma, My husband and I just met her last summer as he mowed her lawn. We talked about how much we loved God, and how she was thankful that God's hand was in her daughter's recovery. She loved to show me her pictures in her living room as well and I know she missed her husband. She was a wonderful lady.

My fondest memory of Norma was when she use to babysit me and my two brothers. She would always try to make us fudge and it never would harden! We always ate it with a spoon! She was the sweetest woman, always smiling, always fun loving! I miss her very much!
