

Oakalette Marie McGowan

May 20, 1952 - January 27, 2019

BLISSFIELD- Oakalette “ Marie” McGowan, age 66, of Blissfield, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, January 27, 2019, at Toledo Hospital.

Marie was born on May 20, 1952, to Oakley and Lorraine (Arquette) Moran in Ypsilanti, Michigan. On November 7, 1992, she married Allan “Al” McGowan in Blissfield and they celebrated 35 wonderful years together.

Marie was proud of her Chippewa heritage and passed this knowledge on to her children. She had many talents and was known to have a “yarn room” in her home where she created beautiful knitted and crocheted items for her family. Marie was very nurturing and demonstrated her love for family in everything she did in her roles as wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Marie was able to conquer any task she put her mind to and worked in a variety of sales positions over the years.

She is survived by her husband, Al; children Anna Brandon, Daniel (Jennifer) Clore, Jr., Amanda Clore, Victor (Melissa) Clore III and Jessica McGowan; 8 granddaughters, 11 grandsons; 14 great-grandchildren and one sister, Melody Fields.

Marie was preceded in death by her parents, six sisters and one brother.

Funeral services for Marie will take place on Saturday, February 2, 2019, at 1:00 p.m. at Wagley Funeral Home Tagsold Chapel , Blissfield, with Dr. Rev. Victor Clore officiating. Burial will follow at Zion Cemetery, in Ogden Township. Visitation will be on Friday, February 1, 2019, from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. at Wagley Funeral Home, Tagsold Chapel. Contributions in memory of Marie may be made to the family to help with funeral expense. Online condolences and memories may be shared at www.WagleyFuneralHomes.com

“ Selected Verses from the Book of Proverbs 31:10-31

Who can find a wife of noble character? She is worth far more than rubies.

She obtains wool and flax, and she does her work with pleasure.

While it is still night, she gets up, and is ready for every day's work.

Her hands are steady, and with skill she sews clothing for her family.

She extends her hand to the poor, and reaches out to the needy.

She is not afraid of the snow, for her household is well clothed.

She weaves warm blankets, and her clothing is fine linen and purple.

Her husband is well-known and respected in the town.

She makes linen garments and sells them at the market.

She greets each day with a smile, and loving instruction is on her tongue.

Her husband speaks in glowing terms, and her children call her blessed:

“Many women have done valiantly, but you surpass them all!”

Charm is deceitful, beauty evaporates; but loving God is the way to wisdom.

Give her praise for what she has accomplished; she is distinguished in the town.
