“ Patti was such a joyous woman with a matching personality. That cute giggling laugh would light up the room! We always had fun at the rallies❤️ And she was an encourager to some, and a fighter for others when it was necessary. I loved her when Max would drag her out of their RV to go for a walk. These are precious memories I will cherish.

Ken and family, I am so sorry to hear of Patti's passing. I join you in rejoicing that she is pain free with Jesus in heaven, but I know she will be missed. I have such wonderful memories of high school with Ken and Patti. Patti's birthday was 2 days after mine, and we shared in March celebrations. “ I was so blessed to get to enjoy Patti and spend time on her visits to our area and so loved the fact that my oldest grandson got to meet her. He loved the gazebo and thought her dog was funny. Family is the heart and soul of one's existence here on earth. She will be missed dearly, I woke up at 3:30am last night with her on my mind thinking she was with Uncle Buck, fishing in heaven.
