“ Eight years ago, Patti wrote a moving tribute to my father on this very site which brought me much comfort. Two years later, around this same time of year, Patti wound her way through a sea of people at my four-month-old grandson's funeral and gave me a huge embrace. These two small acts of kindness are my most vivid memories of her, although I do remember her from picnics at Aunt Jean's and Uncle Paul's, at holiday get togethers at Grandma and Grandpa Wonder's, and from the summer long ago when I was cool on the playground at Garfield School because my cousin was the recreation leader there.

Janet, Pete, Dana, Jill and all the rest of the family, we hurt with you at her passing, and pray for God's comfort in your lives. In 1 Corinthians, the Bible says that death is an "enemy" and that it has a "sting". Yet further on, in the last book of the Bible, we're told that there will come a time when God wipes away all tears and that crying, sorrow, pain, and even death itself, will cease to be. May all of you be comforted in God's love now, and, may He rest Patti's soul in peace.

Cousin,
David Rink

“ Pete & family,

I was saddened to hear about Patti's passing. My thoughts & prayers are with you during this difficult time.

Patti was one of my best childhood friends. We spent many summer afternoons playing games or eating raspberries as we cut through neighbors backyards between our houses. I will always remember teaching her to do a cartwheel in her backyard before she tried out for cheerleading.

Patti was a beautiful person on the outside but even more important she was beautiful on the inside. Although her talents were many, one of her most important was making people feel welcome & important.

Although we were not in contact as much after college, I looked forward to seeing her whenever I returned to Adrian especially after we had children. I was especially happy to see her at our 50 th high school reunion.

I'm blessed to have had her a part of my life even so long ago. The world is a much sadder place without her.

My thoughts & prayers are with you Pete & your family as you continue forward without her. Please know that many others share your grief & loss.

“Pete, Janet, and family of Patti,
I knew Patti since we began seventh grade. I was pretty new to Adrian and she was very nice to me. That began a long friendship. I remember so many things about Patti. How she was just so darn beautiful! Those green eyes (although at one time she hated them and wanted brown contacts!) were so lovely. She was tiny and shapely even in those ugly box pleated skirts and knee socks we wore in high school. We had classes together, cheerleading together, were on Homecoming Court together, and she was always kind. We called her Rabbit because it rhymed with Abbett. She never complained about that. Rooming closely at Brown Hall at EMU was a hoot. She had a wicked sense of humor but would occasionally get her feelings hurt. One time we went to Florida at spring break and whomever's car we drove wouldn't let Patti drive because she was too short. She was furious! She lectured us all the way home about how short people could do the same things as we could just as well. She was very smart, very creative, musical, and fun to know. It was lovely to renew our friendship years ago, and I will miss having her in my life.
Love to you all. She loved you all very much.
