“ We were friends for a long time. Then I moved and we lost touch. I’ve thought about you often over the years and always hoped to reconnect. I even tried over the last years but your number changed. We had so many good times together and I’m sad you’re gone. I remember once we were in your parents backyard and the brightest shooting star we’d ever seen went streaking right over top of us. That is still the brightest shooting star I’ve ever seen and will forever be reminded of you when I remember it. Thank you for being my friend and I will miss you.

“ Rebecca was small when we first met her and Allan and Kathy . Even tho you remained in the neighborhood we seldom saw your family . Allan and Kathy if we were home we would be at your door for you to lean on us . A parent should never have to bury their child . Prayers for all the family . GOD welcomed her and will always be their .
