“ We are so sorry for your loss - your Dad was a funny witty man that we share many fond memories of him. He taught me and the boys how to drywall - that work is truly an art he was very talented in. He give me my beautiful sister-in-law who I love with all my heart! Although he may be gone from us, he is still there in your heart, he is still there in your cherished memories, he will always be watching over you in heaven. Stay strong and blessed! May his soul rest in peace. Love You All! Cheryl
