“ Dear Anita and family: we share your sadness at Bob’s passing but rejoice in the many happy memories we made in Brisbane, Canberra and lately in Valdese. The beautiful memorial service was a fitting farewell to the Tripp patriarch and a great source of comfort to us all. Love, Mike, Sandy, Michelle & Matt Macdonald

“ My Grandpa Bob, the only grandfather I have known, was and always will be connected with happy memories for me - exciting long-flight family holidays, massive rollercoasters, long-desired presents (my first Walkman), Euchre battles, special banquets, piles and piles of sweeter corn with butter and salt ...

For me, Grandpa Bob, his pretty home in Adrian, the street, the lake, the veggie garden, the ride-on mower that no one has here in Sydney, that big beautiful blue spruce tree - all of that represented a sweet ideal of my American family heritage.

Now as I re-read Grandpa's beautiful Charles Dickens volumes that proudly adorn the entire top shelf of my library at home, I think of him and all of that happy, sweet surrounding, with fondness. I look forward to seeing Grandpa again in the only world that he could love more than his own little Adrian paradise that he and we all loved.

“ *Dear Jeff & Tripp family,
Our deepest condolences for the sad loss of your husband, dad and granddad. We are thinking about you at this very sad time. Our prayers will be that you get the strength to cope and remember the good times. It won't be long now when we will see all our loved ones in the resurrection. It is so comforting to know that they are just sleeping for a short while.*

All our love Paul & Ruth Bartlett, Sydney, Australia.
