“ My sweet baby boy I balled my eyes out the day I found out I was pregnant with you it was the happiest moment of my life finding out I was going to be your mommy. Having you grow inside me and experiencing what it was like to have you so close to me for 9 months I wouldn't change it for the world you changed my life for the better in so many ways so fast I just wish it didn't have to end so quickly I wish I could have been able to take you home, love you, cherish you, and given you the greatest life I possibly could it's not fair that our time got cut so short but I will always be your mom and you will always be my miracle baby I hope you and papa take amazing care of each other I will see you both real soon and when I do I'm never letting you go I love you so much baby you'll be with mommy always and my heart will always be with you until we meet again my love ❤️.

“ Dearest Roman, I wish you would have known your mother longer. Her love for you couldn't have been measured in a full lifetime. She awaited your birth with love and devotion. Always know she will carry you in her heart for the rest of her life. Love, Kathy Poma (a friend of Grandma Adelle).

*My dearest, sweetest little Roman candle,
You lit up my life in such a small amount of time, in so many ways. You taught me what was important to fight for and what you should just let roll off your back. All in the matter of no time. How does someone so small have that ability?! You are a special case. You were hand picked by your great grandpa in heaven. That's where the power came from, he gave you the ability to bring us together when everything was dark and falling to pieces. I felt you moving and talked to you many times in your Mama's belly, and I loved every minute of it. I only got hold you for a short amount of time. Kissed those precious full lips and that adorable little button nose endless times. I rocked you, sang to you and just cuddled as much as possible. Taking in your smell. Oh my sweet little angel, I miss you so much already, but not even death could stop love from transmitting from one soul to another. I only held your little hand for a short time, but I promise to hold you in my heart till the end of time.💕*

THIS LITTLE LIGHT OF MINE, I'M GONNA LET IT SHINE 🥰💕 I will love you always and forever, my precious little angel, my sweet grandson.

I will love you always and forever.

Love, Gammy 🥰💕🙏
