“ Rosalyn, you will be missed so much every time I come home to visit. You were a joy to be around so full of life, lots of fun to be with, and always with a smile on your face.

You always were there to help me with anything I needed or just to call me on the phone to talk. I am so glad when I was home last year for Labor Day you had just got home from the hospital and Colleen and I came to visit you on Sunday. You looked just like Rosalyn, smile on your face and so happy to see me. This is one of the memories

I will treasure and keep in my heart of you. Rosalyn you are loved by everyone and will be forever missed. May you rest in peace now.

Love you,

Janet Bissonnette

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Rosalyn's passing. We both went to Sand Creek School, me in the class of 1959, Rosalyn class of '62 so known her a long time. We also worked together at the Adrian Daily Telegram, she in Circulation and me at the Classified Desk. We had a great time working together at the Telegram. We also shared a cottage at Devil's Lake one week in the summer along with a few other girls and as you can imagine that was a LOT of fun. Rosalyn sure looked good in a bathing suit!! We also thought it was so funny that Rosalyn Brown was going to marry a guy named Green, just changed colors. My condolences to the family. Nancy Cole Bailey

“ Rosalyn loved life. She lived it to the fullest. She created fun for herself and all those around her. Her loved to play cards which we did with her and Bob plus others every Friday night in Florida. Besides Friday night, we played Hand and Foot cards with she and Bob both in Florida and Michigan whenever we could fit it in. Rosalyn loved to bake and shared her bake goods with us. Rosalyn never did anything part way. She was all in. In Sorority, Church, Traveling, or Chairing the Social Committee in Florida. Her love, enthusiasm, and joy will be greatly missed. “ I don't even know where to begin. We've been good friends for several decades and had so many fun times together. I will miss her so very much. We played so many card games with Rosalyn and Bob, explored lots of different places, shopped a lot, ate a lot. She was such a good cook and had such great ideas with cooking, decorating, packing for travel. Everywhere I look I am reminded of Rosalyn. She was a gem, a one of a kind. There will never be another. Rest in peace with our Heavenly Father. We will meet again.

“ I was a little younger than Rosalyn in school, we rode the same bus. She had the same smile back then as she has in this picture. She was a kind upper classman especially to me on the bus, I appreciated that. My condolences to her family on the loss of their wife, mother and grandmother. God bless her.
