“ To my Pappaw;

When I was a little girl you used to sing me a song "I'm saving up coupons, to buy one of those.." and we'd laugh and laugh. Oh what an amazing smile you had, you could really light up a room. As you lit up my life. You'd ask me "How much do you love your Pappaw, Dana?" and I'd stretch my arms as wide as they could go and say "This much Pappaw" and you laugh and give me a HUGE hug. You'd eat yucky stuff off my plate when Mama wasn't looking. You'd give me coffee, even though it stunted my growth. I remember sitting and watching you cook for hours and hours, and then I'd say "This is GOOD, Pappaw." At EVERY Meal, you always got a kick out of that. I remember watching you hang laundry, because it smelled better than in the drier. I remember gardening with you. I remember picking fresh fruits and vegetables on farms. I remember you drawing me a picture for my book report. I remember all the good stuff grandmothers do with their grand-daughters, and you are there with all those good memories, which is where you will always stay in my heart! You were always there for me and Mama. Thank you for being a wonderful Grandmother. I know you loved me and you knew my love for you. I MISS YOU MUCH!! Kiss my Baby Angel Ashley. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH PAPPAW! Love Always and Forever, Dana###imported-begin###Dana Hawk###imported-end###
