“ I have so many wonderful memories of Roxi. Every moment we ever spent together was special.

I'm sure Brit will remember when her and I came home from Pepe's with what we "thought" was a pager (before cell phones lol) and we thought we really found something great untill Brit and Christina (my daughter) pointed out we brought home the pager the restaurant used to let you know your table was ready. One of those things where you had to be there I guess.

And one day we were driving down Burnham St and these 2 young guys were waving well we just smiled and waved back then realized as we turned the corner we had both left our "cocktails" as she called them on top of the car and as they slid off onto the ground. Brit my dear I'm so sorry for your loss you know I loved her so. My condolences to the family. I'm so thankful I was blessed with her as my best friend. Wish I could've said good-bye.
