“ Its been a little while now, But the hurt is still there. Tom my brother in law how I do wish we could have talked just one more time. I miss you so very much. This seems like a dream to me ,and can just amagine how much more hurt my dear sister and the children and grandchildren feel. “ My heart aches for each and every person who loved and lost this amazing person. Hold onto each other, and take comfort in your memories. And don't forget to laugh as you remember the good times...it's amazing how much a smile can help to heal a broken heart.

“Love is stronger than death even though it can't stop death from happening, but no matter how hard death tries it can't separate people from love. It can't take away our memories either. In the end, life is stronger than death.”

Roger, Tammy, Stacy, and Stephanie: You may not be related to me by blood, but you ARE and always will be my family... I love you so much and please let me know if there is anything I can do. Because you hurt, I hurt too.##imported-begin##Heather Barber##imported-end##

“ To Aunt Elsie, all of my double cousins and your children! My heart can only feel a small portion of what you all are feeling at this difficult time. I wish that I could take away some of your pain but only time can do that. Cherish your memories. My hope is that these will help you through this. My love and deepest sympathy to you all.
