“ Where can I begin? Still not believable that she's gone. Sabrina was such a wonderful lady and friend ! She was so considerate of others in all her actions. Sabrina was the great example of what it is to be a christian. I know that her spirit is with the Lord and we will all see each other again on the last day and in heaven forever with God. Tracy, Alex, Shelley, Patti, and all family and friends, I know this must be so difficult for you all. You are in my prayers. We can rejoice in her peaceful eternal life and all the wonderful memories we have of our beautiful friend. Her legacy to all of us is to be kind, generous, smiling, and sincerely caring to all we meet as a tribute to how she lived her life.

My many memories of Sabrina include a wonderful time at Blissfield High School’s prom so many years ago. What a beautiful person Sabrina was here on earth. Her vibrant smile is destined to make Heaven a brighter place. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Tracy, I am deeply saddened to hear of Sabrina's passing. I remember you both growing up and attending St. Peter's. Your parents talked of you both, proudly and often, when I visited them. May all your memories of Sabrina be of comfort to you and may she now Rest in Eternal Peace. Suzanne Gates
