

Sally Fashbaugh Graham

May 2, 1941 - May 27, 2020

BLISSFIELD – Sally Graham passed away on Wednesday, May 27, 2020 at Ascension Providence Hospital in Novi, Michigan, where she had been a patient for three weeks. Sally was born in Bixby Hospital, Adrian, Michigan on May 2, 1941, to Clarence and Marian Fashbaugh. Sally was only three years old when her father, Clarence, died in 1944.

Sally attended a one room school house for nine years and went on to graduate from Blissfield High School with the Class of 1959. She attended the University of Michigan and then transferred to Wayne State in Detroit, to complete her Bachelor's Degree with a dual major. Sally was awarded a full scholarship to obtain her Master's Degree from Smith College in Boston, MA. In 1968, Sally married Lew Graham.

Sally worked as a social worker in Detroit and the Upper Peninsula for many years. She was a generous individual, always giving to a charity or organizations that assisted others. Sally helped to start a library in an impoverished section of Detroit; and for many years volunteered every Saturday morning by distributing food and clothes to those in need.

Those left to grieve her passing are her sister, Betty (Dean) Wachholz; nephew, Chad (Michelle) Wachholz; and many cousins and dear friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Marian Hadesh, father, Clarence and her grandparents.

Visitation will be on Friday, June 5, 2020, from 1-2 p.m. at Wagley Funeral Home, Tagsold Chapel, Blissfield. Funeral Services will be held at the funeral

I got to know Sally when she picked me up in Brighton from my daughter-in-laws home in 2006. She was indeed a kind and caring person. Prayers for Betty and Dean and the rest of Sally's family.

“ I first met Sally when she and her then husband, the best man at the service, were at our wedding in North Dakota. From then on, she was my best friend. She was such a kind, intelligent person, always up on the news in the States and around the world. She and I shared a love of reading mystery books. After viewing spectacular sights during the day, we'd both take out our newest "who done its" and quietly read together during the evenings while touring Yellowstone National Park.. She introduced me to a bookstore in Ann Arbor named Aunt Agatha's. There we sought out books no longer in print. Sally would also do sleuthing in the Detroit papers, looking for out-of-the-way restaurants from all over the world. When I moved from one state to the other, she came to help me pack and would also check out the bookstores and antique shops. Sally was open-minded, fair, and ready to help those in need. Every summer she searched for good bargains on school supplies and backpacks to give to students who were less fortunate than others. May you be surrounded by G-d's gifts and may your memory be for a blessing.

“ My deepest sympathy to Betty on the loss of her sister. Although Sally & Betty were our neighbors when I grew up in the Mulberry Corners area, time marched on & I hadn't seen her since I was in grade school. We were reacquainted last summer when Sally attended a neighbors & relatives luncheon in Metamora, and I had an enjoyable visit with her. I am certain she'll be missed, but those who knew her will have many wonderful memories.

“ Sally was a good friend and fellow collector of Occupied Japan items. I have known for about 10 years. She was always very sweet, kind, and thoughtful. I was hoping to see her again at the next OJ convention. We dearly miss you, Sally! (Photos was taken in the O.J. Coventions, in 2016 and 2017.)

“ It's a long story how I met and knew Sally, but as fellow Occupied Japan collectors we were great friends and even though we didn't see each other often, we talked a lot and talked some more. She is missed. Love you Sally!
