

Sally Jane Rieve

August 27, 1943 - May 9, 2021

TIPTON – Sally Jane Rieve, age 77, of Tipton, died in the evening on Sunday, May 9, 2021 at home with her husband, Russ, and family by her side.

Sally was born on August 27, 1943 to Jerome G. and Georganna H. (Greiman) Uyttenhove in York, Pennsylvania. After graduating from Onsted high school in 1961, Sally worked in the insurance field.

On June 21, 1963 Sally married the love of her life, Russell L. Rieve and they have been blessed with 57 years together. Family was the center of Sally's life and she enjoyed raising their three daughters and spending time with the grandchildren.

She was a member of Grace Point Evangelical Free Church and helped wherever she was needed whether it was teaching Sunday school or working in the kitchen. Sally and Russ shared their faith with others through song and prayer. Russ provided the song and Sally was the voice behind the screen bringing the puppet "Hooey" to life. When her daughters were young, Sally volunteered her time with the Rainbow Club and was a 4-H leader and community leader for 25 years. After her family was raised, Sally gave of her time and talents working as a developmental kindergarten aide, once again touching the lives of many young children.

In addition to her husband, Russ, Sally is survived by their daughters, Krista and Hank Scott, and their children, Amanda (Joseph) and Nick (Samantha); Kimberly and Tracey Roberts, and their children, Trevor (Chelsi) and Tiffany (Joshua); and Katina and Brent Woerner, and their children, Dylan (Val) and Grace (Austin); brother, Jerome "Jerry" and Sharon Uyttenhove and sister-in-law, Deborah Coutts. She was preceded in death by her parents, brother, Donald Uyttenhove; sister, Mary Ann Fick; brother-in-law, Dale Coutts and in-laws, Carl and Juanita Rieve.

Funeral services for Sally will be held on Thursday, May 13, 2021, at 11 a.m. at Grace Point Evangelical Free Church, Adrian with Minister Doug Whittlef officiating. Burial will follow at Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens, Tecumseh. “ Sally & I had quite a bit in common. We both attended Gracepoint, both have wonderful caring husbands, both love the Lord and finally both have Multiple sclerosis. Where we differ was when she came to church she always wore heels!. I was always envious (sorry Lord) of that fact. Lol. No matter how hard I try to dress up the tennis shoes just don't cut it. But that is now a nice memory that I have of Sally.... Always smiling and asking me how I was doing and wearing shoes with heels! I rejoice that she has found her rest and is in Glory and I pray for Russ and his family. May they feel God's grace, mercy and love around them as they now travel this road without Sally

“ Such a loss for a terrific person..Many years ago God led me and my husband to Sally and Russ when they suffered loss from a tornado..We wanted to help someone and we were snt by God to help them.. Our friendship was always there but it faded as time went on, but I never forgot them. When I came in contact off and on throught the years the feeling of friendship was still strong..God loans us to others then calls them home to be with Him..Sally will always be in my heart and memory...Many God comfort all her family in the current time and years to come with precious memories.

“ Our family was so blessed with Sally's love by sharing her family and home while caring for our infant daughter until the age of 5. As working parents, we knew Sally was "a gift". Recently she has "gifted" me again by inspiring me with her strength. Thank you Sally.
