“ Words cannot truly express how deeply sorry I am for your loss. We all grew up together and I have a lot of really good memories of the time we shared! One of them, in particular, is of Sandy driving us up and down the main drag in the brand new 5.0 blaring Boston! She was nothing if not a free spirit!! May God Bless you and your whole family. And may the Peace that passes understanding abide with you. Much love and sympathy, Stacie###imported-begin##Stacie Marquis###imported-end##

“ Dearest Tisha and family,
I so enjoyed getting to know Sandy at the family gatherings at your home. Her sense of humor was priceless! I believe when our soul passes we go to a better place and that is my wish for her. I'm so sorry we won't be able to come over for the service. I'm sending huge hugs your way and know that with time all wounds heal. I'm hoping you find comfort and strength in the days to come.
Much love to you and your family.##imported-begin##Michele Fontaine##imported-end##
