“ Mr. Meredith was one of my favorite members at Warwick. Just the nicest, realest, most down to Earth guy who was always great for a smile and a laugh. I will never forget one morning I was listening to Bob Marley at work, and he came in and immediately started loudly singing every single word to Redemption Song. I couldn't believe it, and just looked at him laughing and said "I love you right now." I am truly going to miss seeing him on the course everyday. Members like Mr. Meredith make me love my job and people like him are more than just my member- I considered him a friend. He will be missed.

“ I had the privilege of working for Mr Meredith as his caddy for the past three years. He always made a conscious effort to make me feel less like an employee and more as a friend. He always asked me how my day was and if I had any plans after the round. Throughout the round, Mr Meredith would constantly joke with me and make me guess the 80's song he was playing and until I could name them all, I couldn't say I was truly "cool". Before I left for college he gave me his phone number and told me to reach out if I ever needed anything and gave me one last hug. I really grew to know Mr Meredith over these years and I can say the greatest thing I came to learn about him was his caring nature. He treated everybody with kindness and always made those around him smile. Not seeing Mr Meredith at the golf course anymore will be tough for me and my experience there will never be the same, but I know he's up above playing a round with the angels in Heaven.

“ My name is Jack Johnson and I am one of the caddies who caddied for Mr. Meredith. I was shocked and saddened when I heard of his passing. Mr. Meredith was so passionate about his golf game and we had great conversations I'll always remember. I will miss him on the course.

“ My wife and I saw Scott weekly at Warwick Hills Golf and CC over the past few years. He was a fixture here as well as a passionate and competitive golfer. His desire to engage in spirited play as well as meaningful conversation was a joy. Not seeing Scott here, is a loss to is both. He will be missed.

I have been playing golf at noon with Scott for years We were good golfing buddies at Warwick Hills. I was playing with him when he got an eagle on 6 and when he shot a 40 on the back. I liked that he called me Billy, he always looked out for me, and I admired what he did for young athletes. He was a good friend to me and we will all miss him at the noon toss.
