“ Grandma Clark was a great woman. Bless her heart. I loved her so much and miss her so much. I wish she could be here to see my children and play with them and teach them to count with stacks of pennies and other coins. She would have loved them so much and I'm glad she saw my oldest child and was very happy. She was one of the kindest and most loving people that ever lived. She would work so hard to help watch us when we were little and took us on so many walks and other fun activities. I'm thankful to have her as a grandma and as the years go by it makes me appreciate her more. She was truly a selfless person that did everything for her family and loved them so much. I wish to be more like Grandma Clark and help my children like she did. Her children have all been successful and happy and the same with her grandchildren. She has really made an important difference in everyone's life by demonstrating such love and kindness. She was a great person that was very good and I'll always remember her with a great love for her and a great respect for the person she was

“ To Sedonna's family,

You have my sympathy.

My mom, Irene Anderson, was Sedonna's neighbor at Lenawee Medical Care Facility and also ate at her table in the dining room.

Things I remember about Sedonna was the information she had about everything. It didn't matter what the topic was, she could carry on a interesting conversation. She was so kind and friendly to me when we would all be sitting at the table waiting for the food to be ordered.

My mom just loved all the fancy jewelry she had. My mom would want to go shopping for rings so she could have rings like Sedonna.

During the last few days of my mom's life (She died 12-6-12) another resident was hurrying to find Sedonna because they were making a plan to get out of the home. Sedonna had the plans and she failed to pass the plans along. I have no idea if this was true or not-probably not-but this was one of my last memories of Sedonna.

Sedonna probably had no idea that a plan was in the making. She was kind to this person and that told me a lot of what kind of person Sedonna was.

She enjoyed all the outings you took her on too. She would show me pictures or the trinkets she would get.

God bless your family.
