“ Dear Karen and family,
Beverly and I sorry to hear about your mother's passing. We are keeping you in our prayers. We are glad to hear that you were able to be with your mother in her final days here on this earth and that you have the promise of seeing her once again in the life to come that Christ has made possible by His death and resurrection. If you are still here in Michigan, we would love to have a chance to see you before you return to Florida. In the love of Christ we remain.
