“ Always smiling, always so genuine. When I remember Aunt Shirley I remember someone very special who would make you feel so welcome. She didn't want anyone to ever feel left out. Her BIG hugs and kisses are engraved deep in my memory. She beamed with love. I don't know a person who met her that didn't love her. She was a big part of my life as a young child and I am very thankful to have had that time with her. Gods garden now has the most perfect "Bug" ##imported-begin## Cathy Jo Handy ##imported-end##

“ *To the Family of Shirley,
We are all feeling such a loss today. Shirley was my best friend and she was such a loving & caring gal. We shared so many fun times together and I will treasure all the memories and good times I had with her. I find comfort in knowing she is now with her mom & dad who she missed so much but I know she hated to leave us but I also know we have a wonderful guardian angel watching over us all. I Thank God for being a family member and have always felt I was family. God Bless you all during the days ahead but we know Shirley is no longer suffering and is with God in Heaven where we will all see her again some day. We will look forward to that meeting and once again be a family all together again.
Love You All,
