“ Steven was a all around great guy, he had such a positive outlook on his and Niki’s life together.
He really was the definition of a fighter too.
Although his health declined quickly he still was yet to give in to it.
Niki I’m so sorry honey, I love you and I am here for you whenever you need me.
So please If you need a shoulder, someone to talk too, or want company just because I am here just call me.
Love you
Aunt Lori

“ *Chris and I were so blessed to come to know Steve. We only found out on their wedding night, how they actually met. We were in Jamaica , in July 2002, getting married and our Daughter, Andrea had a party at our house (unbeknownst to us) and being best friends of course Nicki was there and Andrea invited Steve too, who she knew from school. The rest is a true beautiful love story if we have ever seen one. Together for over 15 years before we found out they actually met at our home. We love you and you will always be in our hearts.
