“ My Aunt Susie, what an amazing Woman,
Wife, Mother, Friend, Grandparent, Sister,
Aunt and beloved Daughter of the Most High King Jesus! She knew me from the day my Twin Brother Kirk and I were born! She helped raise me, she gave me my first Good News Bible, taught me about Jesus, and she was like a Mom to me!!! I Loved her very much!
Although sad she is no longer with us, I am celebrating her new life in Heaven with Jesus!!! I'm sure my Momma (her best friend forever) is so happy to have her there along with Uncle Dale!
Sending love and prayers to all of the family and friends! Aunt Susie was a bright light!

“ Susie was always such a smiling sweetheart! I remember she always made the reminder calls to those who were scheduled to serve each Sunday. And sent out birthday cards to all our members. She had such a wonderful smile and caring heart. And she always asked about my kids and offered to pray over them.

So sorry Alysia and Stan and family. knew Susie for years. Her mom and dad lived next door to us when on the farm. Difficult to lose parents so close to one another. May God wrap his arms around you and comfort you!
