“ She was a wonderful woman. When I was a child she would take me so my sister and brother could spend time with me. I always felt part of her family. My condolences go out to this family, my family. R.I.P Mama Terry

“ I always enjoyed spending time with my mother-in-law. She always made me laugh and was such a strong, kind-hearted woman. She welcomed my children and treated them as her own. I will cherish the times we shared together. Rest in peace mom and now you can fly away with the angels.

She was so sweet. For several years when I was a teenager she was like a second mother to me. I'm saddened at her passing. Even though we lost touch I'm here if you need anything Kim and Kenny.
