“ I am so sad to hear of Terry’s passing. I am sad for the big hole he leaves in his family’s life. I know the grief and emptiness of the days and years ahead. I know he is with family members but also with good friends like Dave and Ron. Every time Dave and I came from Pa to Adrian to visit, visiting with Terry and Pat was a highlight of our trip. I loved hearing the stories of how Pat and Carol knew Dave went shopping with their husbands because. Dave made them buy really good quality gifts for their wives, which meant more money than they wanted to spend. I loved to hear Terry’s theory of who shot JFK and I agreed with him! Those men from Adrian are the nicest men I ever knew. I will have your family in my prayers. I am glad that Terry, Dave and Ron are able to be a part of heaven and continue their friendship in the eternities. Love you Terry Hinsdale

“ I rode the school bus with Terry for a short couple of months in 7th grade. Terry was the last pick up at his home on Hunt Rd. My family moved away and I lost contact with Terry. Many years later (decades) I thought I could prank him at his shop. I walked in and demanded to see the Manager. Told the young man behind the counter and off he went. Terry finally appeared and I let him have it. He looked up and straight into my eyes and said “you’ve never had a car here and how in the world have you been...Jeff?” Didn’t think the “old” man would remember! I made an effort to stop and see him whenever I was in town.

I want to pass along sincere condolences to his family, his many valued customers/friends, and his classmates. Rest In Peace Terry, you will be missed. Jeff Yielding (oh, and save me a seat on that special bus...)
