“ I truly regret not getting back up north before uncle Ted passed away. I have very fond childhood memories of him at the A&W

He is with the Lord now and in a much better place. And I look forward to meeting up with him again and having a foot long and a cold mug of root beer.

May the lord shine his grace on all who loved him, and give them peace and strength in their loss of a very loved man##imported-begin##John (Cathy) Schuller##imported-end##

“ *Aunt Janet and family: My Uncle Ted was the sweetest and one of most loving people God ever put on this earth. He was so helpful to my family when my dad, Romey, was ill and after he died, he was always available for us. His loving ways, that smile, memories of ping pong at my brother's house, his plumbing skills at our house, family football games and many more memories will never be forgotten. I know when he entered heaven, his whole family was there to greet and rejoice with him. No more sickness. I can only pray that the pain of your loss can be replaced with the wonderful memories you have of your husband, father, and grandfather. Love,
