BLISSFIELD – Thomas Clark Haneline, age 52, of Blissfield, died unexpectedly on Tuesday, January 26, 2021, at ProMedica Toledo Hospital following a brief illness. He was born February 18, 1968, in Lapeer, MI, the son of Hubert D. and Margaret (Shepherd) Haneline.

“ I remember the very first time I meant Uncle Tom was my son Kaydens 3rd birthday. We had planned a fun day at the orchard but the weather didn't cooperate. We ended up having his party at a Burger King with a play place. Who drives nearly 2 hours to go to Burger King for a birthday party for someone you haven't yet met, let alone with kids in tow? Uncle Tom did and showed up with a smile and ready to celebrate! That first impression of him has always held true, he would always have smile and positive vibe about him at any family events we were blessed to all be at. Heaven has certainly gained a kind soul.
RIP Uncle Tom

“ Craig and the Haneline family,

I'm so sorry for your loss. I remember Tom in the late 90's around Eastern Michigan University. International Place Apts. to be exact. Tom was always a patient level headed older brother influence on Craig and I when we certainly weren't always making the best decisions those days. Great Dude to talk music and sports for hours. I pray for peace and love for his children and that Tom enjoy himself and his new life in heaven without any pain nor any sorrow.
