“ When my husband taught and coached at SC he made an instant friend in Tom. He followed the Aggies and always had compliments for John. When my son and daughter were part of our family Tom always made time for them. When I would see him years later he was such a bright light in my day, adding a bear hug, and happy thoughts. I'll miss you r beautiful soul. Michelle Moore

“ When I was 10 years old and "Tommy" was probably 14 years old, he wanted to work on the farm. My uncle Bob Anderson let him help do some baling. So Tommy joined the baling operation. My cousins, Mike Anderson and Rich Simpkins were stacking the bales. Bob said Tommy could drive the tractor. So he got on the tractor, when he let out the clutch like a race car driver. In the process, the bales on the wagon flew off onto the ground behind the wagon. The cousins laughed their head off. After a few minutes of getting our butts chewed out by Uncle Bob, we knew not to laugh again. After the embarrassing moment, Tom got back on the tractor and finished the job. He actually worked all summer doing farm jobs for Uncle Bob. Tom was a good guy and we had many fun memories.
