“ Matt, Ryan, Randee, Vicky, Mark, Anna and Michael,

I don't think I need to tell you what an impact Tom made during his time here on this earth. His realism and kindness will always be treasured and appreciated. I feel very blessed that I had an opportunity to share part of my life knowing him. He and your mother were always very kind, honest, and down to earth people, which is what made them such an amazing couple. My sincerest condolences to you all through this very difficult yet bittersweet time.

*Sincerely,

Vicky, Matt and families, So sorry I couldn't be there today. Uncle Tom was very special. I loved his sense of humor, he was just so real. I wish I could have seen him when he came to Moms house. Thank-you Vicky for making that happen. Mom was just thrilled to see him. I'm so sorry for your loss. Lori
