“ I remember the first time meeting Tom, I went to help pick sticks up out of his yard. He insisted I put a jacket on before I could help. Since then he has become part of our family, a grandpa figure to me. I will miss our milkshake dates, birthday celebrations, and breakfast dates. He will forever be loved and remembered ❤️❤️

“Fourteen years is a long time to know someone, he was supposed to be a neighbor, but he turned into family. He was like a grandparent to my daughter, reading together when she was little, sharing popsicle dates, and swinging on his porch swing. Every morning, without fail, he'd watch me leave for work and wave. And every afternoon, he'd be there again, waiting for me to come home. Every single phone call ended the same way: "I love you, and I pray for you guys every night." We celebrated his birthdays year after year with burnt hot dogs and cake. Every year he would always tell us he'd be around to watch Libby graduate. That was his goal. He missed it by a year. At our last visit, last week, he would just watch Libby. Every move. He would wink at her and tell me "that's my girl". She was so special to him. He loved that girl. Tom made our lives warmer. We are so incredibly grateful for the years, the love, and the memories. Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire family.
