ADRIAN- Timothy Wayne Cagle, (“Bucket”), age 60, of Adrian, passed on to the welcoming arms of Jesus on Sunday, January 12, 2025 at the Hospice of Lenawee Home surrounded by his loving family and close friends. Born on February 12, 1964, in Adrian, Michigan, Tim was the middle son of JT and Carolyn (Kolz) Cagle. Tim graduated from Sand Creek High School with the class of 1982. Tim began his career working at A&L Auto Parts, and moved on to driving truck and repairs with Gentner Trucking, Redi-Mix and the Michigan Department of Transportation. As he used his smoker he loved to say he was “Smokin’ Up Da Hood.” In 2015 he joined forces with pit master Doug “Hoss” Millyard and co-founded the charity organization Kookin’ for Kids Lenawee County. Over the past nine years their annual fundraiser has collected $275,000 and much more in donations of food and prizes. 100% of the donations go for Christmas gifts for the children of Lenawee County.

“ *T,
You were one of the best! You were the most gentle spirited man I've ever met. I'm thankful to be able to call you friend. I'm happy we got to chat a couple weeks ago. You told me your were going to be fine. This is not fine with us here on Earth, but you're in a better place of love and light with loved ones welcoming you with open arms. RIP T. You deserve it.
