“ I didn't know Vanessa for a lifetime. But the time I knew her is priceless to me. Vanessa above all radiated God's love and represented goodness, kindness and love. She encouraged others all the time and set examples for all of us on how we should be to everyone, everyday no matter what our life is like at any given moment. We all need to learn from Vanessa and remember to be kind and encouraging to everyone we meet in honor of the life she lived. Do a random act of kindness when you can because Vanessa was always kind to everyone. Vanessa, I am so proud to have been able to call you my friend and I thank God for giving me that opportunity. Until we meet again , I will always love and miss you. ❤️

Vanessa and I were co-workers at Adrian College. I am grateful to have had the privilege of her friendship for 20 years. I always considered her to be my best friend.

Vanessa's deep faith and love of Jesus was truly inspirational. She was one of the kindest people I have ever met who often put others ahead of her own needs. We had many wonderful phone calls over the years. Sometimes she would call me and ask me to pray for someone she knew who was having a difficult time.

Even though Vanessa suffered greatly in her later years, she rarely complained about her pain and difficulties.

I will keep her in my heart always.
