“ My Grandma, Verna L. HALLETT-Witt was a phenomenal woman. Not mentioned in her obituary, however, were several things. She was an avid geneologist, spending numerous amounts of her time researching her and her family member's lineage. She drove a school bus for Sand Creek Schools for many years, was an active member of the Sand Creek Community Church, and even acted as a Den Mother for her in Boy Scouts. My grandma was also previously married to my grandfather, Gaylord ("Sam") Hallett, and they were together for 30 years. After spending time with her and taking care of her for two weeks at night before she passed, I would like to thank the several people that took the time to stop by and catch up, or simply offer a passing "Hello," because these simple actions meant the world to her. Sand Creek Community Church and all of it's members, for offering their prayers and for the kind souls that stopped by to see how she was doing. To Jeanette Knox, who would come and visit, making my grandma act like a teenaged girl all over again. My aunt Vera, who camped out with her husband, Ron, bringing back the days of her childhood, where she would answer to "Anrev." The Hospice nurses, especially Avis, who stayed longer than was required to make sure that my grandma was comfortable. And to anybody else that stopped by, or did what they could to help out, my family and I extend a great, heartwarming thank you. As I said before, my grandmother was a phenomenal woman; she was greatly loved, and will surely be missed.

*Lauren,
Your grandmother was a very special person and I was lucky enough to have known her for many years.....through Little League and the Cub Scouts and especially through our love of genealogy. We ran into Verna in Vermont one time....doing researching at the State archives. What a joy she was. We will miss her.
