“ Sadly, I was just informed of Viv's passing. What a neighbor! How lucky I have been to have had Viv and her family in my life. It is an end of an era; traditional Czechoslovakian Christmas Eve meals of fish with the porch light left on for a needing sojourner, coffee clutch mornings between her and my mom, the sharing of vegetables from the gardens, and even a tandem race around the "big block." The borrowed crutches; do not return them until needed on the other side of the road or surely the need would arise immediately. She cared for "Grandma" as well as her own family. The memories of the out of town cars arriving well ahead of the different weddings. The aunts bringing their best confectionary delicacies; all shared. Viv out on her porch as we were on ours. Viv was a gem!
