ADRIAN-Wayne Edward Roback, 85, passed away early Tuesday morning, December 10, 2024, in the comfort of his home and surrounded by the love of his family.

Wayne was born at home in Ogden Township, Michigan on September 28, 1939, to Arthur and Adeline (Tonneberger) Roback. Being one of the youngest of nine children, Wayne lived life to the fullest entertaining family with his antics and a sense of humor. Wayne also lived a life devoted to family, agriculture, and community.

Wayne graduated from Adrian High School, where he was active in FFA and football, earning All-State Honors as a guard. He went on to Michigan State University (College), where he earned a two-year agricultural degree.

In 1961, Wayne married Karen Thomas of Onsted, and together they built a life filled with love, family, and purpose. They raised three children: Jayne (Jim) Near of Adrian, Janelle (Dirk) Stewart of Manchester, and Jay (Karen) Roback of Adrian.

Wayne's lifelong passion for agriculture began early and extended through a 25-year career as a salesman for agricultural products. Afterward, he worked for Adrian Public Schools in the maintenance department, retiring in 2004. In retirement, Wayne dedicated over 20 years as a full-time volunteer at the Lenawee County Fairgrounds, where he continued to champion agriculture and youth education.

As an alumnus of the Lenawee County 4-H Program, Wayne proudly served as a 4-H leader, 4-H Junior Livestock Board member, and 4-H Swine Superintendent. His commitment to the Lenawee County Fair spanned more than 25 years as a fair board member. His passion for livestock and educating youth in the art of raising animals was a cornerstone of his life.

Wayne cherished his family, including his six grandchildren- Emily (Keith) Walworth, Hunter (Morgan) Stewart, Jocelyn (Sam Haack) Near, Katie Roback, Jameson Near, and Maggie Roback; and two great-granddaughters, Miley and Piper Walworth.

He is survived by his wife Karen; children; grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and siblings Roger Roback, Gordon (Shirley) Roback, and Jan Roback.

Wayne was preceded in death by his parents; siblings Richard (Doris) Roback, Melva Jean (Clarence) Walker, Florence Roback, Dorothy (Ed) Waltz, Carol Roback, Carl (Patty) Roback and Don (Jean) Roback.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I first met Wayne when I worked at the Livestock gate collecting money and tickets for 3 years. My husband worked security through his employer, Signal 88 Security. Wayne was so protective of me, and always made sure I had everything I needed, and would joke with my husband, that he needed to make sure I had all that I needed, including breakfast when I got to the gate early and of course ice cream!! He was the best. I also had the pleasure of meeting Karen and Janelle. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this sad and hard time.

“ Wayne always reminded me of my uncles. He would razz and pick on me just like they did. I appreciated his humor. Wayne would contribute a pot of his delicious chili or ham & bean soup to our Extension office potlucks when we asked. I will miss your smiling face. Rest in peace.

“ God broke the mold after he created Wayne, there will never be another Wayne Roback. His humor and unique personality will always be remembered by fair goers, especially the 4 H families. The fair will never be the same. I for one will always remember the enjoyment Wayne shared with others. Condolences to all of his family. Keep all the special memories alive in your heart. May he rest in peace. I'd love to be there to see the celebration in heaven.
