“ In the summer of 1965 (I think) Werner taught my brothers and I to soar in a Scheiwtzer 2-22 glider. My dad was president of the glider club at that time and we had spent much time helping launch sailplanes at the National competition at the Lenawee Count Airport that summer. As a reward my dad got us all to take lessons from Werner. A very nice clam instructor to a bunch of teenagers. We all solo'd within 2 weeks.
